

BOB ROGERS TO BE MINISTER OF INTERIOR and Marines.

A SECTIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Marathon wants one of the city commissioners of Greater Edmonton chosen from that side of the river. Here is a helpful hint which may aid the council out of the corner they are in. The city has a commissioner, Commissioner and no very good prospects of getting any more, for reasons not necessary to review. The suggestion is that the city should indicate that there is commissioner lumber to be found across the water. An expedition had better be despatched forthwith to the north-western shore of the Athabasca, however, whether it would be well to hamper the city to be with any restriction as to where it may look for commissioners. The city of Edmonton has not been fortunate in securing men who could hold down the job with satisfaction to themselves and the city. The city has no objection they have all left us—and Commissioner Candy presently remains in the city. The city should indicate to keep the mayor from getting lumber to keep the city from getting lumber to permanently retain the position. 70

It was in the summer of 1945 that the two vessels, Krebsus and Terror, sailed under Sir John Franklin and Captain Crozier into the then little known Arctic seas.

Successive relief expeditions were equipped to search for and to succor them, but they failed to find any trace of the two ships. In 1948, however, it has been concluded that the vessels were wrecked and the crews perished in the frozen north.

The solution of the mystery by the two Harvard discoverers of the origin of the peculiar people in the north involves the theory that the Eskimos are the survivors of a people whom they at least lived after disaster and overtook the Krebsus and Terror. The theory is that the Eskimos were a dusky people and were dusky brides for themselves.

McNAMARA'S DEFENSE

IS IN NEED OF FUNDS

No Truth in Story of Hair Million Dollars in Treasury Declares Charles Darrow Who Appeals for Aid for Release.

Los Angeles, Sept. 28. — Hampered by a lack of funds with which to carry on proper investigations in the prosecution of the coming trial, when will undoubtedly start October 21, the defense in the case of John J. and James H. McNamara is today in the face with a serious proposition.

With scarce of private detective stenographers and lawyers in their work, engaged in running down evidence, Charles Darrow stated today that the defense has less than $10,000 with which to meet outstanding obligations. In addition to this, many of the witnesses who will be summoned to testify in the case are practically without funds, and it will be up to the defense to advance money with which these witnesses will be brought.

In numerous instances, across the country, well known experts have been employed to work, and it will be shown that the defense must seek to show that the destruction of the Times building was not the result of a combination of forces, and not of dynamic.

It is already being received for the defense of the McNamara's.

Charles Darrow, chief counsel for the defense today, "We have now less than $10,000 on hand, and this is rapidly diminishing. There is absolutely no truth in the report that the defense is provided with $100,000. It is only what it were true. We need money that has been pledged by friends and sympathizers of the Mc-Namara's throughout the country were paid, we would have money to spare."

He asked change of venue.

Los Angeles, Sept. 28. — Wrought up over Judge Howland's decision that before the grand jury next Monday questions bearing on the times dynamiting case, Attorney Lopez, late yesterday stated that the defense will ask for a change of venue.

Charles Howland, ruling, said that the defense has no right to ask for a change of venue. He said that he ordered the grand jury to make a careful investigation of the case, and that our attorneys must answer questions bearing on the case. This ruling is the hardest blow the defense has yet met with, as it means that they have to acquit the grand jury with the evidence in the case. "We do not say that we will, it is very difficult, said Darrow. "It is not very easy," said Darrow. "It is not Shorter Hours—Strike London.

Chaired by Parsons.

London, Sept. 27.—An amusing feature of the strike mania, which has swapt this country during the summer, is the demand of the school boys in various cities, for the redress of alleged grievances. This latest outburst of the strike fever is due probably to the fact that the school boys are not in season when the general strike was in full blast. Appropriately enough, the school boys of Liverpool, that hotbed of industrial disturbance, were the first to demand relief from their hard lot.

School had recommenced while the temperature was still tropical, and this fact undoubtedly added to the ordinary aversion with which the boys had regarded the reopening of the school room. Parading the streets of Liverpool, the school boys, now displayed banners inscribed: "What our fathers have done, we can do also." The strikers demanded, first of all, the abolition of the cane, then shorter hours and less work. In all, the strikers, parents proved effective strikebreakers, and the leader of the strikes learned, to his sorrow, that the cane had not been abolished.

London Affected.

This week the strike fever spread to London, and a number of the Lontarily closed. The strike was engendered

Hospital—Saturday

The public of Edmonton have evidently shown their great interest in the New City Hospital, judging from the great success which the ladies have experienced in selling tickets at a higher price than usual for the Hospital Ball, which takes place to-night.

We wish also to express in a tangible way the obligation which we feel under to support a local institution of such a nature. With this purpose in view we have decided to Devote 5 Per Cent. of the Cash Sales on Saturday to the Hospital Fund. Please bear in mind that every time you make a purchase here on Saturday you are assisting the City Hospital. Our prices are true sale prices and the goods are genuine Fall Lines as modern as any one could desire. We have spared no effort this year to ensure the success of our Fall Opening and our buyers did exceedingly well when on their various trips to the large trade centres. They have enabled us to offer far better values than we have ever dared to announce before at this time of year.

Landing This Afternoon.
Matta, Sept. 29.—A telegram from Tripoli states that twelve Italian warships are anchored off Tripoli and that it is expected a landing will be effected this afternoon.

Turkey's Pointe Reply.
Constantinople, Sept. 29.—The Turkish reply to the Italian ultimatum signifying acceptance that there will be no resistance to the Italian military occupation of Tripoli and Cyrenaica, was communicated to the Italian chargé d'affaires, Signor di Martino, at 4:30 o'clock this morning. The message was couched in friendly terms and expressed surprise at the action of Italy in view of the cordial relations existing between the two countries. It was pointed out that Italian forces in Tripoli had not been threatened and expressed the hope that Italy would desist from her contemplated measures. Assurance was given of Turkey's desire for a settlement of the matter pending between the two governments.

The reply also stated that Italian subjects in the Ottoman territory were exposed to no danger as the authorities afforded them protection, and added that the Turkish military measures had been suspended during the period of negotiations for a settlement of the differences. The reply was determined upon at a cabinet council which continued at the palace from late yesterday until early today.

Will Not be Satisfactory.
Upon receiving the communication the Italian chargé d'affaires immediately telegraphed it to Rome. The movement in diplomatic circles is that the note will not be satisfactory to Italy. The Turkish squadron had left Hierat and is returning to Constantinople. Every precaution has been taken to preserve order in the capital and throughout the provinces.

Germany Less Violent.
Berlin, Sept. 29.—The German press today does not spare words in condemnation of Italy's action. The Loket Anzeiger, which is in close touch with the foreign offices, says: "A state with the slightest regard for its honor can only answer 'No.'"

The Frankfurter Zeitung declares that civilized Europe, disregarding political differences, must protest against an act of open pillage and naked violence, and says there is no justification for Italy's "brutal methods, particularly toward two allies."

The Zeitung Am Mittag says: "One must go back to the partition of Poland to find a similar example of brutal violence and political hypocrisy, which was strikingly illustrated in the warning of the powers to the Italian states to 'behave.'"

Has Turkey Rejected Demand?
London, Sept. 29.—Italy's warships are before Tripoli and Italy's ultimatum is in the hands of the Turkish government. Only a few hours will elapse before Turkey must make her reply. A late despatch gives the report that Turkey has rejected the Italian demands. Despatches from Rome indicate that such an arrangement would not be a surprise, therefore Italy is making preparations all along the line to dispatch warships and troops to that portion of the Turkish empire over which she now demands a pre-emptive strike.

Situation Critical.
That the situation in Tripoli is critical is evidenced by the fact that most of the Italian residents and many of the Europeans have taken a hasty departure. The Turkish authorities in Tripoli have so far maintained order, but there is a veritable panic among the foreigners who have elected to remain or have been unable to find a way out of the country.

The Italian government is backed by the newspapers of that country, but the British press has severely arraigned Italy for "precipitation." Germany, which has been interesting in behalf of Turkey for a peaceful settlement, has so far failed to make progress and some of the German papers are bitter in their denunciation of Italy's latest despatches.

Turks Are Preparing.
The latest despatches make no mention of the landing of Italian troops which Turkish officials declare would be accepted as the beginning of hostilities. The Turkish steamer Derna, which yesterday entered Tripoli harbor and landed men and munitions, is said to be only one of a number of transports despatched to that port. Four more Turkish steamers, with arms and ammunition, are expected to arrive at Tripoli at any moment.

Tripoli Is Harassed.
Tripoli, Sept. 29.—This city, which is threatened with hostile occupation, was desolate this morning. Nearly all the Europeans left last night and today the streets were deserted, except for squads of Turkish soldiers, who are enthusiastic over the situation. The Arabs have held a noisy meeting in all the mosques and taken a solemn oath of unity and allegiance to Crete.

DOUBLED DROWNING IN THE FRASER RIVER

Two Young Men From Indiana, Lost Their Lives in Rapids on Way to Peace River. Cause—Remains Brought to Edmonton.

Details of the double drowning in the Fraser river of two young men bound for the Peace River country have reached the city only with the bodies of the victims, named C. Adam of Columbia City, Indiana, and Albert C. Jenkinson, of Crawfordville, Indiana. The bodies have been received from the west by Connolly & McKinnon and are now being prepared for shipment to Indiana.

Adam and Jenkinson left Edmonton on July 25th by G. T. P. for the west, bound for the Peace River country, where they intended to take up land. They went as far west as the Teas Juan Cache and then took canoe down the Fraser river on August 19th. On a rapid not more than half a mile from the landing, where they launched their canoe, the frail craft upset and both young men were drowned. The body of Adam was found on September 1st, and the body of Jenkinson on September 24th. Adam and Jenkinson were both about 21 years of age. J. M. Pullenweiser of Indiana, has come to Edmonton to take charge of the remains for the families of the two men. The bodies will be sent south over the C. P. on Monday.

A GREAT BATTLE WAS FOUGHT NEAR THERMAN.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29.—A Turkish dispatch says that according to government advices a great battle was fought yesterday at Noharan, fifty miles from Tcheran. Saluted Dostch, a brother of the deposed Shah, left 200 killed and 200 captured, in addition to seven big guns. He retired in the direction of Hamadan, to the west, the government troops pursuing him.

to the Turkish flag to the last drop of blood. The Turkish transport Derna has discharged 20,000 tons of ammunition, stores and 13,000 Mauer rifles. These have been taken into the interior, dispatches being used in moving the supplies.

A London News despatch from Vienna says Turkey proposes to present an ultimatum to Greece demanding that the latter withdraw all claims to Crete.

ASQUITH MAY AGAIN APPEAL TO COUNTRY

This Report Says Great Britain Will Have Another General Election Next April—Home Rule to Be the Issue.

London, Sept. 28.—Internal discussion in his cabinet has driven Premier Asquith to decide that a general election must be fought on the home rule bill before there is any possibility of successfully passing it into law. The bill will be introduced in the House of Commons next April and after a preliminary discussion has taken place parliament will be dissolved, the fight being waged entirely on the Irish question.

As a result of this decision, John Redmond is now organizing a strenuous home rule campaign throughout Great Britain this autumn with the idea of educating the public to the real meaning of home rule with special stress on the point that there is nothing in the nature of separation. On the government side, Lloyd George and Winston Churchill will conduct a similar fight.

For this reason, neither Redmond nor T. P. O'Connor will accompany Daniel Hoyle in his fund raising campaign throughout the United States this year. Their presence is too urgently needed at home.

NO STRIKE ORDER ISSUED.

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 29.—The strike order for the Harriman lines will apparently not be issued this morning. The strikers' Association of Mechanics having convened at 5:30 in an endeavor to close up its business and adjourn this evening. President O'Connell, who is presiding over the session, stated at nine o'clock that no strike order had yet been issued. Others matters occupy the attention of the convention and adjournment will be until 11 o'clock. This afternoon or evening, however, a definite strike order may be issued.

Confesses to Shooting.
Willow River, Minn., Sept. 29.—Jesse Edson, who Tuesday last shot and perhaps fatally wounded City Marshal S. L. Mott, seriously wounded Rural Mail Carrier Vernon Pennerbirt and shot his wife and father through the arm, returned home today and voluntarily surrendered. He confessed the shooting and said it was done while he was temporarily insane as the result of a sore, and he is penitent and grief-stricken.

MONTREAL MAN TELLS STORY OF CONSPIRACY

Millionaire David Russell is a Witness in the Case Against Pinkerton Detective Agency.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—The case of David Russell against the Pinkerton detective agency and the Montreal manager, Mr. John McNamara, for alleged conspiracy, continued today, David Russell and his brother, John Russell, being the chief witnesses. Mr. McNamara was also on the stand and continued the story which he commenced yesterday. Chief interest centered in the appearance of the witness, Mr. David Russell, who told the story which led him to believe there was a conspiracy against him. Mr. Russell was only at the beginning of his story when the court was adjourned. As yet he has not named any of the persons to the jury in a series of alleged plays carried out against him. Mr. Russell told of the attack on the Windsor hotel last October of Mr. Patterson, accompanied by a woman who tried four times to secure an interview with him. He refused, however, to meet her, except in the general reception room. He discovered that Mr. Patterson, who claimed to be the husband of the woman, was watching him closely all the time, it being evidently the intention of the couple to place him in an unpleasant position. He said that he went to Detective Carney, of Montreal, with his story and was advised to place the case in the hands of the Pinkertons, which he did.

Pinkerton Playing Him False.
The Pinkerton agency, however, he believed, played him false, saying after the Patterson case had ended that they had traced them and found them to be a respectable couple who could have no connection with any plot against Mr. Russell.

Mr. Russell also told of the efforts of Mr. McNamara to persuade him from going to New York and Pittsburgh to investigate for himself the truth of the statements made to him by McNamara. He also caused a sensation by stating that after he had professed that the Pinkertons had played him false, Mr. McNamara had offered to have his $150,000 worth of land sold for him if he would stop his case against Patterson. He also alleged that Sir Louis Mountbatten was connected with the matter, although how did not come out. He said that after Mr. McNamara had told him of the possibility of the land-law suit, the new "Barron" name in the window, but did not speak to him. On reaching the train for New York he met Detective McNamara, who told him that he must keep under cover, for "he had the goods." Mr. Russell then joined his secretary and said, "I love her, got David McNamara on board," and after they got to New York he met McNamara and told him that things were going well, and after he found out that Mr. D. D. Mann was registered at the Plaza Hotel.

Afternoon Session.
The feature of this afternoon's evidence in the Russell case was the reading of the following telegram, which J. W. McNamara admitted having sent to Moose Cowichan: "Kellogg fixed. Note attending conference at Glen Park. Am still nervous. Has raised figure to $10,000. Pays will still not touch Thompson. Don't enter Pittsburgh and Ottawa. Read relatives on trail. He and I will with him. He has severed his relations with me. Start him out of the country." "McNaughton," note attending conference at Glen Park. Am still nervous. Has raised figure to $10,000. Pays will still not touch Thompson. Don't enter Pittsburgh and Ottawa. Read relatives on trail. He and I will with him. He has severed his relations with me. Start him out of the country."

No explanation was given as to the meaning of the effusion. McNamara testified that Kellogg and Russell were the New York attorneys, who had been legal advisers to him. He told of an interview between himself, chief of Pinkerton agent, and McNamara, previous to the reading of the telegram shown above. John Russell, brother of David Russell, gave evidence tending to show that he had always believed that his brother's mind was sound, and of an alleged attempt to show the complainant to be of unbalanced mind. He testified that Moose Cowichan had come to Montreal as David Russell's friend, and that after his arrival McNamara declared he must Cowichan and McNamara. The latter he testified said David Russell's mind was sound, and declared a "play of campaign," whereby they were to go to New York, enter David Russell's room at the Manhattan Hotel, and, if necessary, overpower him in order to submit him to a medical examination in regard to his sanity. This "play," he said, was shown in Dr. Pritchard and McDonald, two New York specialists, but they refused to have anything to do with it. The witness stated that Kellogg had said he (the witness) was a fool for having been misled into coming to New York, that Mr. David Russell was as sane as any man alive. The case will probably occupy several days at least and probably a week.

WETASKIWIN.
Bulletin News Service.
The Wetaskiwin Fair, which was held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, drew down into history as far as the best ever given in the Wetaskiwin district. Nearly all the classes were well filled, and it was no small task for the judges to make the awards. There were one hundred and twenty-five horses, and nearly one hundred and fifty head of cattle entered, while in the poultry exhibit were to be found the best of the breed from the best of the breed. There were twelve deer and Edmonton, in the latter department there were many entries to be well displayed in the exhibit. The time has arrived when the society will be in to provide additional accommodation for the fair, as it was not quite as large as last year, but it is expected that the farmers are too busy to spend a day or two away from their homes. The Wetaskiwin Citizens' Band was the feature of the fair, and played the crowd with an unstinted supply of the best music. The feature of the fair was the stock parade on the second day, when all the prize winners were paraded and the grand stand, making a procession nearly a mile in length. The horse racing and athletic events were all well contested, and the crowd appeared to be pleased with the attractions provided. In the baseball match, Wetaskiwin won from Crooked Lake by the score of 11-5. The teams were very evenly matched, and the score was a tie at 10-10 in the eighth inning. Games were held in Angus hall every night of the fair.

J. F. Franklin, of the Merchants Bank, who has been here several years, left on Thursday morning for Leithbridge, where he has been promoted to the management of the bank. A farewell dance was held in Angus hall on Monday evening, when a large number of his friends were in attendance. Mr. Franklin was a native of the city, and all his friends, in congratulating him on his promotion and wishing him all success in the future.

O. H. Johnson of Edison, is in the city this week straightening up some business affairs. He reports that business is booming, and he will remove his family to Edmonton as a suitable home can be had.

Mr. W. L. L. O'Neil of the London, who are spending several days with friends in the province, arrived in the city last week to spend some time visiting at the home of John Carney of Toronto, in the city this week spending a brief vacation and renewing acquaintances.

Several youths were brought before the Justice of the Peace this week, charged with being under the influence of liquor, and also shooting on the Sabbath. After being severely reprimanded by the court, they were allowed out on suspended sentence, after paying the costs of the case.

The local Conservatives, who were so jubilant over the results of the election held a torchlight parade on Friday evening. After parading the principal streets headed by the band, a halt was made in front of the future site of the new city hall, where several addresses were delivered from the balcony. Among the speakers were Mayor Power, Mr. McNicol and Geo. H. Campbell.

A shooting accident happened at the water tank five miles north of the city on Thursday afternoon, when the afternoon train ran over and instantly killed a young man named McLaren, who had charge of the tank. It appeared that he had been in the habit of catching the afternoon train and returning to his home at Leduc on this occasion he missed his head and was thrown under the wheels. His body being cut in two. The remains were conveyed to Leduc by the same train that killed him. The accident is very pathetic as the young man had just recently on a visit to his home in Scotland.

Another very sudden death took place near the city on Saturday last when Mr. W. Thompson, who recently arrived from England, passed away while talking to his son in the barbers' field. He was sitting on the binder at the time, and without a moment's warning he collapsed. On being carried to the house it was found that life was extinct. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and daughter had recently arrived from the old land to join their three sons on the farm just west of the city. Deceased was aged 55 years. The funeral took place on Tuesday, services being conducted by the Methodist church by Rev. A. H. Aldridge.

Wesley Hosford passed through town last week on his way to his home at Louisville, after being absent over a year in England, where he went to take treatment for his optic. His many friends are pleased to know that he is fully recovered.

WORLD'S SPORTS NEWS

INAPPROPRIATE BUT STILL INTERESTING

Manager Martin's Dream From West Coast. Manager Martin of the of the Rockies will be much changed.

Although the 1912 season of the Western Canada Hockey League is under way, it is not yet official although it may be inappropriate to remind the Edmonton team that it is represented by a strong team with the certain rains of the opening game last spring, yet such talk may be interesting to the fans.

Manager Johnny MacInnis has returned from a three weeks' scouting trip. During his sojourn in the east he managed to get his tentacles on a number of good ones. The fans will have to be introduced to at least five new ones, but just who there are Mr. MacInnis refuses to divulge, lest he be grabbed by some enterprising club with a big bag of greenbacks.

A portion, a thirdman, two outfielders and a right handed slusher named John MacInnis. They were acquired from the Michigan, Marquette and Copper Country Leagues. The new men secured are not the only results of his trip East, as he has arranged to attach to half a dozen more.

The hold ups in the Spokane lineup at the close of the season have been largely filled. Doherty, Heinrich, Doherty and MacInnis are the only ones left of last season's performers.

Slight, the starting catcher, who declined to play, will be filled by the catcher with a new wind-mill from the outfield will also be replaced by new men, as will MacInnis be likely to the Montreal team at Vancouver.
 Ford, the clever little midget of the machine line, will not likely be seen here again, as he is owned by Rochester of the Rochester, N.Y. team.

All the new men played under the watchful eye of the manager, who took no chance on picking up any he did not feel sure of. Johnny MacInnis compares with the best of them and it is not surprising that he has can take it for granted that there are no "lemons" in the bunch.

According to MacInnis, former W.C.L. stars are flourishing like green bay trees in the office here. Knut Lyne, well known to Western fans, owns the Hamilton franchise of the Ontario League, and is coming a mint of money. The team finished second in the league and made money on the road. Mr. O'Brien, another of the stars of the Calgary team, is handling the Vancouver franchise of the coast Queen City league. Bill will be seen in the Vancouver team.

However, when 1912 rolls around, many of these stars will be gone. The team was found holding down a government job in the Customs House. They are making in his absence at the present time, fearing the loss of their position at the recent election.

Johnny will spend the winter in the city until next spring, when he will leave the national call to arms.

DEFEAT SHOULD GO

CARL MORRIS GOOD

Oklahoma White Hope's Defeat at Hands of Jim Flynn Will Not Interfere With Him Seeking to Join Ring.

Instead of putting Carl Morris out of the fighting game, as many would think, a close inspection of his game battle with Jim Flynn, which was de-played in New York recently, would place him in favor with the followers of the roped arena.

As many of those who know that Morris, the Oklahoma giant, was no match for his new husky opponent, but his victory over all fighters stood out strongly in Morris' favor, and that was what counted.

Those who witnessed the struggle between the two men were one of the best men they had ever seen. The fight was a real one, and the victor referee, who witnessed hundreds of tough fights in the ring, stated that Morris put up the gamiest battle he had ever seen.

If such is the case, then Mr. Morris will be a most entertaining spectacle his lighter opponent puts him out of consideration at the present time at least as a "white hope," but with his build, stamina and that necessary mental of gameness he can be developed.

Morris has practically been shoved off the first step of the ladder in his class upwards, but it ought to do him a world of good. With more training and a great deal more instruction in the finer points of the game, it will not be long before the giant will be making the gradual climb to the top. Judging from his performance the other night, teach him how to hit and block and Mr. Morris will be a formidable candidate for honors in the ring.

Flank a New Flank Hitter.
 When it comes to a pinch hitter who puts on the life preservers and does the heroic deed, one should not look lightly on the new one, but the fact is that Edna Delaney is a new Flank. Flank has been seen in to replace "wobbly" brethren more than once, and she has done it well. She has performed in a manner that should earn him a Carnegie medal.

In addition to helping his scattered colleagues over the rough spots, the rickman of Mount Pleasant, leads all the rest of the Mack-cow of Flank's having put away nineteen of the successful efforts, while he has been brought back a half-dozen times.

When one figures that the venerable older rider has been doing business the almost eleven years on the hills, it is not in a slight manner. Flank looks like a man who is in the prime of his career, and to the world's eyes could get in there and do his stunt about with the Forties Pair, Hunter and Coombs.

New Record For Outsider.
 A new record for an outsider was established in Wednesday's game between the Rockies and the Bruins. pulled down five in centre field, the first record for a player in the game was made by Duffy, with the Rockies on August 27, when he had nine put-outs in right field.

MANN CUP OWNERSHIP DECIDED ON SATURDAY

Vancouver and Young Toronto Will Meet Next Week. Vancouver Found to Team are the Favorites—Promises to Be a Great Game.

Western Associated Press.
 Toronto, Sept. 28.—The Mann Cup match at the close on Saturday promises to be one of the merriest battles of the season. The Vancouver team are out to play the game of their lives.
 Although a few of the Vancouver players are yet on the sick list, they figure that everything will be in smooth running shape by Saturday.

Manager Clark of Vancouver, has his players back at it every afternoon at the beach, while the Young Toronto are out during the twilight in the evening.

AN ONTARIO MURDER MYSTERY IS SOLVED

Old Man Believed To Have Been Victim of a Fatal Fall. Found to Have Died As Result of Injury From a Fall.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 28.—The mystery surrounding the death of the 70-year-old of Albemarle township will be particularly cleared up when High Constable Woodman has report to the crown attorney tomorrow.

The body of Jas. McCartney was found in the woods near his home on Monday last, after he had been missing since late Saturday night.

Notwithstanding the evidence at the coroner's jury and the verdict that the death was the result of a fall, it is now accepted, after a thorough investigation that death caused from natural causes and that the old man who was subject to heart failure and disordered mind, fell from a tree and his head did not where he had fallen.

Lord as Manager.
 Chicago, Sept. 28.—The owner of the Chicago White Sox to climb into the driver's seat of the team, and the silent manager that Hugh Duffy will not manage the team next year, and that President Chesney is seriously thinking of making a change.

Chesney, who has been in the Chicago White Sox since 1907, has explained the team, but it is said that his ideas of running the team have been in conflict with those of President Chesney. The latter has been playing since Duffy assumed control of the team, and he is greatly dissatisfied with results.

ENTERTAINMENTS

AN EVER POPULAR PLAY.

No play announced for early appearance in this city will be received with a more hearty welcome than will "In Old Kentucky." This year's "In Old Kentucky" company is larger and better than ever. An entirely new scenic production has been prepared, the most elaborate that has ever been used with the play—and an unusually strong cast secured. That extremely amusing feature, the peckanony scene, with the singing and dancing by Kilopians of diminutive size, will form an interesting portion of the presentation, as of yore. Their labors playing invariably arouse an audience to cheer and the amusing little scene in their animated plantation scene with their singing and dancing are a most entertaining episode of the play. The engagement is for three nights and Wednesday matinee, beginning on Monday, Oct. 2nd.

"TOURISTS" TO PLAY AT LYCEUM

Arrangements were made by Manager Lewis of the "Tourists" the popular musical comedy company, which has been touring the country since Empire theatre last evening to present his company at the Lyceum theatre for a limited engagement commencing tonight. The play selected for the first performance of the company is the "Matchmaker" which might be described as a riot of mirth and merrily giving plenty of opportunity for the comedians and combining many musical numbers which will be sure to please. It will be the aim of the management to at all times to cater to ladies and children and nothing but clean, wholesome comedies will be presented during the engagement in the Lyceum theatre as an extra attraction tonight will be the "Matchmaker" which will be the first of the series at which the girls will compete for valuable prizes.

NORDICA HERE NOV. 1.
 The concert that will be given by Nordica in the Empire theatre on Wednesday, Nov. 1, can be looked forward to by music-lovers as one of the rare treats of the season. Remember that the Empino has only a limited amount of seating capacity and as the list is fast selling, it is well to secure seats early. The concert will be short and the entire house will be sold. After playing as far as Prince-George, returning to the States, the artist to Spokane she will then enter Canada on her way to Edmonton.
 Do not leave it too late in securing your seats that is if you do not want to stand.

ROYAL WELSH CHOIR.
 Tonight the Royal Welsh Ladies' choir will sing two nights at the Empire theatre. As this will be the last time that this great choir will be heard in Edmonton, they will not want to miss the chance of hearing them, therefore any who are better than last year and with the adding of two renowned choruses the concert will be given to be one of the best ever heard in Edmonton.

Many can help here, where few can help here, where few can help to do your share will be on

NEW MODES

Every day is like an opening day in the Millinery salon, as Miss Reid is always importing and creating something new.

Miss Reid's reproductions are as new as the new and New York hats. It is possible, with as reliable color combinations, as well as style.

An Invitation from the Dressmaking Dept.

If you have not yet decided upon the new dress for your next Fall gown, where you intend to have it made, try not to come and consult Miss Christian. Our Dressmaking Department is now very busy turning out beautiful gowns, both for afternoon, evening, or street wear. Miss Christian, our Dressing Department, will be only too pleased to show you materials, new trimmings, new ideas, and to assist you in what is most valuable to your requirements. (2nd Floor)

ALL ARE GUARANTEED

Whether you buy Blue Ribbon Tea, Blue Ribbon Coffee or Blue Ribbon Baking Powder, our refund offer is just the same. If you are not fully satisfied after a fair trial you may return what is left and receive your money from the store. We could not afford to make this refund offer if we did not know that Blue Ribbon goods are pure, wholesome and superior to other brands.

BRITISH M. P.'S ARE MOSTLY ABSTAINERS

A Great Character From the Old Days, When Disraeli Liked His Wine and Gladstone Preferred Port as Their Beverages.

London, Sept. 29.—"One event to mark the close of the present day and the close of the House of Commons," says T. P. O'Connor, "was told by my friend, Sir George Croydon-Marks, that Frank Atterton was in the gallery of the House, and that he would be coming down soon in a few minutes. I need scarcely say that I gladly seized the opportunity of meeting, if only for a moment, one whom I regard as one of the most remarkable men of his time. I found myself talking to a man who had no resemblance to any I had ever either by imagination or photograph had given me. To me Mr. Atterton looked like a typical western farmer, his curly and fresh cheeks, his plain clothes, his expression of alertness and unspoiled simplicity and modesty—all seemed to preclude the man whose life was mainly spent in the open air and in the fields. And his speech increased this impression. It was brief, simple, modest, with a dominating sense of good humor and a ray of mischief in all comments or anything that suggested he was more than a simple, plain man. One is now and then disappointed when one sees a hero in the flesh. I can say quite sincerely that I taking notice of the great Atterton before I saw him, I think it would now. Gladstone belonged to more highly of him since I met him in the flesh.

If I had introduced his name in this article as an introduction to some observations upon the habits of many men, who are engaged by an interview which he gave to the English papers. I gather that he does not drink any alcohol, that he is a great smoker, and that he is strongly of the opinion that non-smoking is much time in sleep. And this leads me to some reminiscences of the prominent men of the present day and their habits.

Contrast of Two Countries.

"There used to be a greater contrast some years ago between the habits of Americans and Englishmen than there is today. When first I went to America, thirty years ago, I was inclined to think there were very few, if any, Americans who ever touched alcohol at all. My American friends used to laugh at this judgment as being entirely untrue in its optimism, but it was a natural impression to one who had seen most of his people in bottle while one rarely, if ever, saw any alcohol on the table.

In those days—I am speaking of the '80s and '70s—it was not uncommon to find numbers of the House of Commons all the better for liquor after dinner. Disraeli was fond of a good glass of wine, until he became too old and too delicate to touch anything but weak brandy and water. But there are records of his early days of his new and then having soundly a debate after having had plenty of wine.

Gladstone Preferred Port.

"In these far-off days, there were plenty of members who came to the House of Commons nearly always more or less under the influence of drink. It caused some amusement, that it could seem people then at a debate after having had plenty of wine.

the end of his days, to the good old constitution that loved good wine, and thought it a necessary accompaniment to any decent meal. Regularly he took his couple of glasses of champagne and regularly, too, he ventured to even venture upon a heavy wine that only men of strong constitution and perfect digestion can stand, and now rather out of fashion. But then Gladstone, unlike Disraeli, who was always delicate, had a splendid physique, the digestion of an ostrich and stern self-control. But he never consumed his love for wine—and especially of port.

Many Teetotalers, Now.

"Many of the leading men in the ministry are now teetotalers. Bunsford, minister of education, is a teetotaler. John Burns has never had a drink or a smoke in his whole life. Lloyd George drinks a glass or two of wine when he is on vacation, or when he goes out to dinner, but usually, and when he is well, he never touches wine. It is a source of hours of fatigue, which comes from his frightful hard work.

"The most abstemious party in the House of Commons is the labor men. This used not to be the case in the old days. Many a man, released from the brewery and also the healthful activity of manual labor and transferred to the sedentary and irregular life of the trades union official, used to let himself go, and many a fine fellow was ruined in this way. But today the labor men can be seen in a row at a table with glasses of water before them. Kate Harle is a teetotaler; Ramsay MacDonald, the present labor leader, is a teetotaler; Thomas Burt, the first labor member of the House of Commons, and still the most uniformly temperate of teetotalers. And so, right through the list.

Barriers' Tastes.

"At evening parties, where you see some of the wealthiest and most prominent men at the table, you often find a long row of glasses of water where, in the olden times, every man would do his bottle of champagne, followed by two or three glasses of port. Even at lunch time, in the middle of the day, men used to have their pint of wine and whiskey and soda. Nowadays most of them take Apollinaris water. This is particularly so of barristers. Barristers have, indeed, to be very careful, as so much depends on them, and therefore they take every precaution to keep their heads cool during the day. And their habits have become extraordinarily simple. There is a little coffee shop in Fleet street, scarcely as big as the store room of a good Atlantic liner. It is called 'Grooms' and now has existed, I believe, for nearly a century. It supplies nothing whatever except tea and coffee and a buttered bun is the lunch every day for the most of some of the most prominent and wealthy members of the bar. I have often seen Asquith there, taking his simple lunch in the olden days when he was a young barrister. How changed are these accretive times. From the days, not more than seventy years ago, when the two greatest judges of the English bench used to take lunch in a wine shop in Parliament street, still in existence, and never rise until they had each had a full bottle of port.

Russian terrorist organization is on the eve of a fresh period of activity.

Indeed this activity has already been the first officer to meet death at an assassin's hands recently. He was merely so prominent that the news of his death could not be suppressed.

That of the victims who preceded him has thus far been pretty effectually hushed up by the government, which objects to encouraging the revolutionary element by letting it become generally known how successful the terrorists have been lately.

Beginning six weeks ago there followed in rapid succession the killing of an assistant prosecutor, the deputy assistant prosecutor and the assistant chief of police of Tambov and the 17-year-old son of Captain Kur-skov, commander of the cruiser Finik in Heligoland in 1906, the serious wounding of the governor of the Donetski province, and the suicide of a high police officer named Sazonov.

In each case the victim received a letter shortly before being attacked informing him that his "execution" had been decreed by the "executive committee of the social revolutionary provisional government." As far as known no one has received one of these letters since the campaign began has escaped the "execution" of the committee, with the exception of the Donetski province governor, Sazonov and Sazonov. The former escaped death through his socialist-assassin's post script. The latter escaped the terrorist vengeance by taking his own life as soon as he received his letter of condemnation.

The assassins chosen to do the social revolutionist work have not only been extremely successful, but all but one of them escaped. The exception was the Donetski province governor, who died at the prison governor's. He obtained access to his victim's office by means of a visiting card and shot the governor in the presence of three other officers, one of whom stated that he himself was wounded and in a desperate struggle captured.

The terrorists were badly disorganized all over Russia some time ago, by the discovery of the fact that the most prominent of their number,

Eugene Azev, who promptly disappeared and is variously reported to have been killed by his former comrades, and to be still in hiding, was a police spy.

A similar discovery concerning Borisov, who shot Premier Stolypin, is unlikely to have the same effect, however, his lack in the past of any interest having been successfully earried out and the man was now in a hanged, so that he will constitute no further danger to the revolutionary organization. In addition to this,

Borisov was far from holding a post of prominence among the Russian terrorists as Azev, and the fact of his voluntary removal makes correspondingly less difference.

Officials and the aristocracy, at any rate, are in a state of panic.

They not only fear the terrorists, but as a result of the means that highly placed persons engineered the premier's assassination, of one another.

Calgary's $1,000,000 Hotel.

Calgary, Sept. 28.—Work on the execution for the new million dollar hotel to be erected at Ninth avenue and First street west by the C.P.R.

company has been progressing rapidly until now the greater part of the earth-shaking has been removed. Yesterday work was started on the new west wing to the station. This will be erected simultaneously with the hotel building.

Saskatoon Supreme Court.

Saskatoon, Sept. 28.—On resumption of the Supreme Court sittings in this city, presided over by Judge Lamont, 1100, Keweenaw, a German homesteader, from near Machin, appeared on an indictment bearing four counts concerning the shooting of another man of the same nationality, Richard Terminski, who is also a homesteader in the same locality.

Yes, I wear a BUCKLEY the hat with a real guarantee!

Every man who recognizes the importance of being well-dressed will surely welcome the announcement of the Buckley Hat guarantee. By reason of this guarantee, you may figure safely on the life of your hat as four months at least—provided you wear the "Buckley." No chance of additional hat outlay—the guarantee treats you to a new hat if the Buckley you buy to-day isn't perfectly good four months hence.

Even accident is provided for in this all-embracing Buckley guarantee. No matter how badly a Buckley hat is damaged—if nothing remains but the label and the guarantee slip—these alone will entitle you to a new hat, provided the date on the guarantee shows the hat to have been less than four months in use.

But it's not the guarantee feature alone that should induce you to select the Buckley. There's another vital feature in hat selection—style is just about as important as quality.

There again the Buckley claims your serious consideration. Although English in make, these hats are built on American lines—and more graceful, more becoming lines, you never yet saw in a hat.

In both material and workmanship, the Buckley excels all others. UNION MADE, and with highest grade felt, they have the wear in them to warrant the remarkable guarantee of their makers. Sold at all leading hat shops at $3.00.

Other hats may give satisfaction—the Buckley simply must.

GATEWAY HEIGHTS ATHABASCA LANDING

If you have not secured a lot in this property you should do so at once. - You cannot afford to let this opportunity slip by, day by day. Some three months ago we strongly advised you to buy at bed rock prices. If you had done so you would have made $75 to $100 on a $175 investment.

Again we advise you to procure a lot at once as all lots will advance $50 each next month.

There is no doubt concerning the great future in store for Athabasca Landing. Inside of two years three railways will make Athabasca Landing their divisional point. With three thousand miles of navigable water, natural gas, coal, timber and a power site conveniently near, what will prevent this from becoming one of the leading cities in Canada.

Athabasca Landing is at the present and always will be the Gateway and Distributing Point for the far famed Peace River and the Great North Country.

Now is the time to invest. You cannot make a more conservative investment anywhere. Come in and let us talk this proposition over with you. We have a large number of photographs we would like to show you.
